Notes from the editors:

The four years I've spent at this school are years I never want to forget. From the friends I've made, even the ones who aren't mine anymore, to the teachers, who helped me find my strengths and fortify my weaknesses, and even the dreadful hill, that has made me question if school was really worth it or not, I'm going to miss this place whether I like it or not. As for this yearbook, it isn't anywhere close to being perfect but I think that's what I admire about it. If there is one thing I learned from going to school here and putting this book together it would be that nothing is perfect. Perfect is typically defined as having all the required or desirable elements, qualities, or characteristics; as good as it is possible to be. I'm sure as you flip through this book you'll find dozens of mistakes but human error is inevitable and being perfect is boring. I hope this book, if anything, brings back the memories you've made this past year and maybe remind you that highschool wasn't perfect but in the best way. Thank you for being anything but perfect RFA.

-Madison Bivona, Editor in Chief

"This is what I like about photographs. They're proof that once, even if just for a heartbeat, everything was perfect."

This yearbook has been quite the challenge to create. We have a great staff and it was really an honor to be a part of capturing the lasting memories on paper for so many people to enjoy and reminisce on later in their life. RFA has always been a place of so many memories for so many people. We really wanted to capture how RFA affects Rome and how the community pushes us to grow and mature as young adults. Without them we wouldn't be who we are now. High school is the time were we find ourselves and figure out who we want to be. We may have lost a few friends, or failed a few tests, but the mistakes are what made us stronger and encouraged us to work harder towards our wildest dreams. These are the memories that will last a lifetime, so what better way to capture that then by the pictures when time froze, and friends were made.

-Stephanie Cook, Editor in Chief

"Memories take us back, dreams take us forward"

Interim Principal

Dr. Jeffrey K. Bryant

"The 2015-2016 school year has reached it's final destination for students, their families, teachers, staff and administration. The completion of a school year represents a time of transition and reflection for everyone within the school community. The past 10 months at Rome Free Academy have been filled with a host of opportunities and experiences that have contributed in shaping who you are as an individual. Whether the opportunities and experiences were in the area of academics, athletics, musicals, plays, performances, clubs, career technical programs or some other special event, you are an individual who has grown emotionally, socially and physically. The growth you have experienced has hopefully prepared you to make a difference in not only your life, but in society.

The 2015-2016 yearbook theme is entitled "When in Rome" to me, the theme implies a message of taking the reins of opportunity and doing something positive while you are in Rome. Each one of you completes the 2015-2016 school year a different person compared to when you started. Whether you are graduating, a returning student or a RFA staff member, I hope each one of you was able to take advantage of the many opportunities afforded to you at RFA. We must all be ready to seize the moment when the window of opportunity is open, "When in Rome".

I had the honor and privilege of serving as Rome Free Academy's Interim principal for five months. During that time, the wealth of students, faculty, staff, and parents I came in contact with made my time at RFA very enjoyable and filled with a host of great memories I will always cherish. My hope is that each of you completes the 2015-2016 school year with your own great memories and "When in Rome."

Principal

Mr. Peter Blake

Dear Students,

It has been an extreme pleasure serving you as your principal this year. It is my wish that each of you recognize what a wonderful school you have created here at Rome Free Academy and that you cherish your moments while in high school. For those of you moving on into the "real world", your RFA family wishes you success at all levels and please know that we are always here for you. For those of you returning to RFA next year, enjoy your summer and the adults of your school look forward to a great 2016-17 school year. Thank you to everyone for all that you do to make RFA the best it can be and a giant congratulations to our graduates. May your future be bright and filled with prosperity.

When in Rome

When it comes to pizza, Tony's on Jay is the place to go. Affordable, friendly, and located right in the middle of town, Tony's can't be beat. (And don't forget your Tony's Mix!!)

Rome is historically noted as the home of Griffiss Air Base. Home to EADS, Rome Labs, and the longest runway on the east coast, the base still plays a role in Roman society to this day.

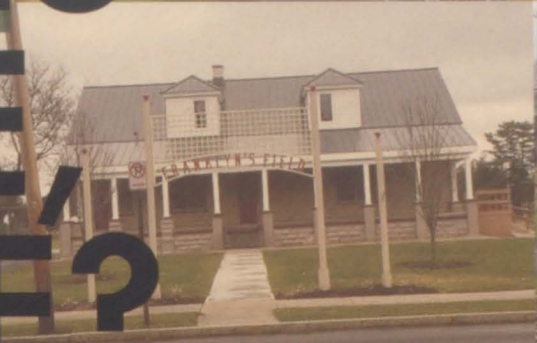

Many sunny days and starry nights have been spent at the lake. Boating, tubing, caking, hanging out with friends, or just soaking up some sun. Lake Delta is our very own paradise.

WHAT MAKES ROME, HOME?

Rome is home to over 30,000 people. Romans are spoiled with an abundance of indoor and outdoor activities that keep us occupied all year round. Whether it's a quick stop at Tony's on Jay for some slices, a little piece of Colonial American history at Fort Stanwix, a day of skiing or snowboarding at Woods, a beautiful performance at the Capitol Theatre, rooting on our boys at Kennedy, the breathtaking views of the night sky at the lake, just a morning coffee stop at Dippin', or a delicious ice cream dessert at Doodles, Papa Rick's, or Sam'z.. These are just a few of the many various activities within our wonderful city. There is never a shortage of possible memories to be made in our wonderful city, and we will always remember where we were and what we were doing when in Rome.

Valedictorian

Nicholas Wilson

Nick Wilson is RFA's Class of 2016 Valedictorian. Nick intends to pursue an education in Physics. He has not yet decided where to attend college, but has been accepted at Clarkson, Colgate, and RPI. In his three years at RFA, Nick has been an active member in the National Honor Society, the RFA Jazz Band, and the Marching Band, where he's made many unforgettable memories. He is also a National Merit Finalist and a recipient of the NYS Scholarship for Academic Excellence. The most influential people in Nick's life are his parents and his friends, both of whom he'd like to thank for encouraging him in all his pursuits. He'd also like to thank his wonderful teachers at RFA who instilled in him a deep love of science. Wherever the future takes him, Nick will always fondly remember his time at RFA.

Salutatorian

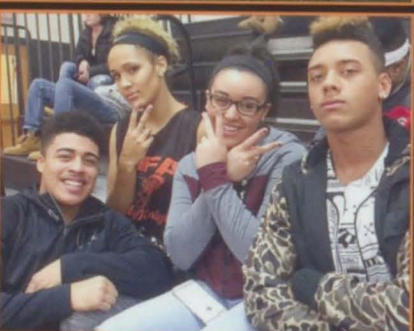

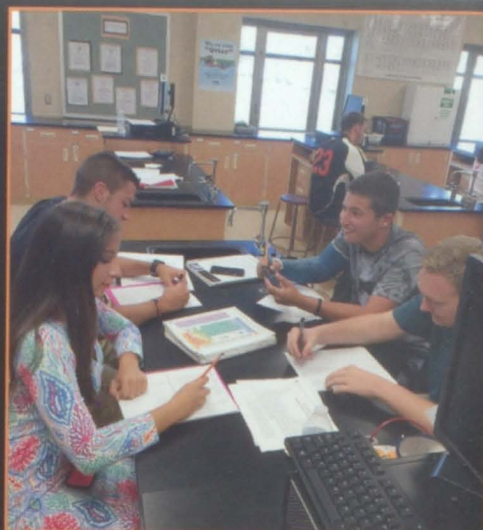

Spencer Parrish

Well Folks, I am ready to leave you. I am thrilled to be attending Berklee College of Music in Boston this fall, pursuing a dual degree in Music Education and Piano Performance. I have been active in a myriad of school music activities - Rhapsody Show Choir, the annual musical, Marching Band Jazz Band, Wind Ensemble - and have provided piano accompaniment for almost every school choir and Strolling Strings. This school year, I served as president of the Honor Society. Not to mention, I am that familiar voice who has opened and closed your morning announcements for the past two school years - your own personal Morgan Freeman, if you will. All of my music teachers/private instructors both past and present have had a tremendous influence on my life and where I intend to take it. I cannot wait to dive into a lifestyle immersed in my lifelong passion and I cannot wait to hear of all you doing the same!

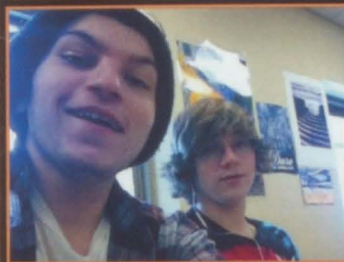

CLASS OF 2016

Seniors

WE MADE IT

Well folks, this is it. Our four long years here at the Academy have come to an end. We've all had our fair share of incredible experiences and everlasting memories created in the halls of our very own Rome Free Academy, and the special bonds that we have formed through the past few years are strong enough to stand the test of time. Both inside the building and out, the high school experience was surreal beyond belief.

When our parents, our teachers, and everyone else used to lecture us about our futures, and how fast high school would fly by, all we could do was hope that they were right (because let's be honest, who likes school?). And it turns out, they were. These years have flown by, faster than we could have possibly expected. Now, we are left thinking, "what's next?" and "Where do we go from here?" Before high school, these questions would have been left unanswered. However, we have learned, we have grown, and we are ready to leave our mark on society, and live a life that we all deserve to live.

Rome Free Academy, I thank you. And Class of 2016, I wish you nothing but the best. I'm very grateful to have spent my time here at the greatest high school on earth, in the greatest country on earth, and I'm sure we are all looking forward to looking back.

Mathilde Crampon

My favorite part about Rome is the nature around it. I also enjoyed the outdoor activities and the people because they are nice and friendly. While in Rome I enjoyed going to eat at Taco Bell and Dippin Douns and going to sporting events. What I'll miss about Rome is the snow during the winter because there was snow days, the craziness at RFA, and most of all my friends here because I won't be able to see them when I go back.

Alessia Mattei

My favorite thing about Rome is the people, they are very nice. Things that I enjoy doing in Rome is going to the movies with friends and going shopping. When I go back home I will miss RFA, the people I met, and friends I've made.

RFA's Clubs are your chance to get involved and make new friends that may end up being some of your best friends for years to come. The opportunities that are available to us here at RFA through extracurricular activities are amazing. However if you feel there is a need for more and different clubs talk to your teachers, counselors, or anyone at RFA about your ideas for new clubs.

Your high school experience is your opportunity to explore different things and interests. Get Involved in as many clubs as you can, not only will you gain great experiences but, you will also make your four short years in high school more interesting and memorable. So Underclassmen, next year join as many clubs as you can and make your mark on RFA. It doesn't hurt your college applications either...

Sincerely,

Jimmy Vienneco
Club Editor

Fermata Nowhere

Fermata Nowhere, the RFA a capella group, had the opportunity to perform with musical legend Barry Manilow on his "Last Tour." The event was held at Turning Stone Casino, with a crowd of over 5,000 in attendance. 27 students, past and present, were on the stage during the performance. Manilow also gifted the group with $500 dollars. This money was used to help pay for the trip to the competition in Virginia, where they won an award for vocal ensemble. This is certainly something these students will hold on to for the rest of their lives.

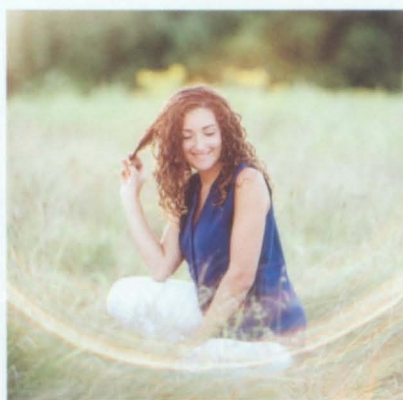

Congratulations Fermata Nowhere.

"Great moments are born from great opportunities And that's what you have here tonight, boys. That's what you've earned here tonight, one game. If we played them ten times, they might win nine but not this game, not tonight. Tonight we skate with them. Tonight we stay with them. And we shut them down because we can. Tonight we are the greatest hockey team in the world. You were born to be hockey players, every one of you, and you were meant to be here tonight..."

Congratulations! Today is your day.

You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.

You can steer yourself in any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.

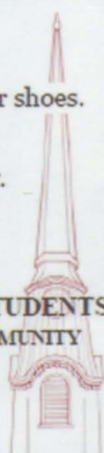

You are the guy who'll decide where to go.

...Everyone Is Always Welcome Here...

Zachary Gruber

Zack,

Through life you will face many challenges but you have already overcome some of them. We are so proud of you. Congratulations!

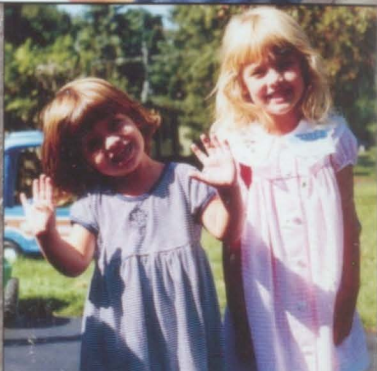

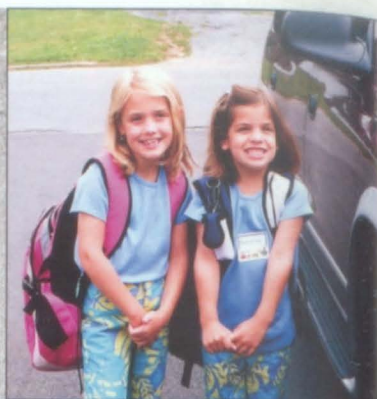

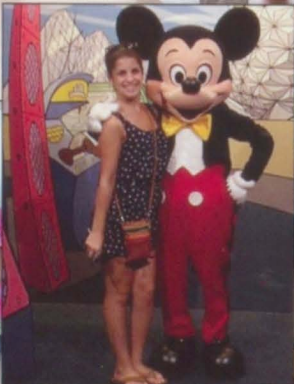

We love you,
Dad and Amy

Natalle Cook

Boo, If we could give you one thing in life, we would give you the ability to see yourself through our eyes.
Only then would you realize how special you are to us.

Love, Mom, Dad, Kate, Abby, & Emily

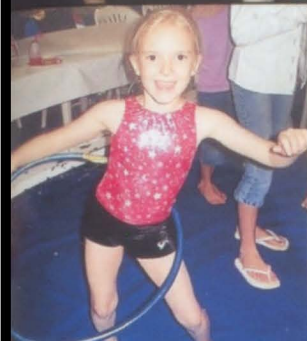

JoAnn Cook Certified R.P.N. Anesthetist

Katelyn Testa

You always were our little princess, and we have loved watching you grow up to be a queen! You have brought so much love, happiness, and laughter into all of our lives. We are so proud of all your achievements and the young lady you have become, and know that your brother is too. We look forward to your future successes. Love you to the moon and back!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kara, & Michael Jr.

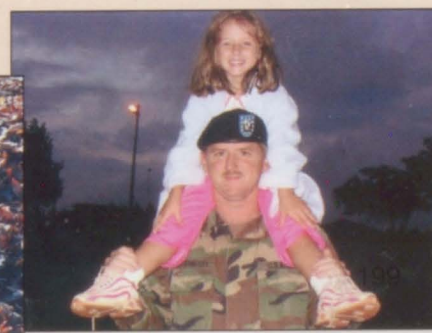

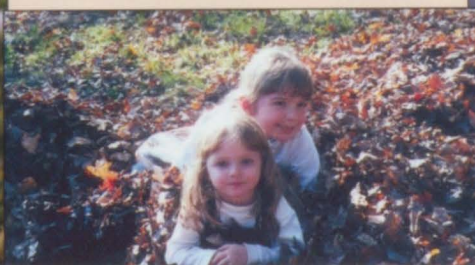

Hannah Rotenberry

Hannah,
There are no words to express how much I love you, only tears of happiness. It amazes me when I look at you and see the beautiful young woman you have become. When you embark on your next journey in life, a part of me will be on that incredible journey with you. I know you will accomplish great things in your life, because I believe in you. Believe in yourself and know your father and I love you very much. Never forget God loves you and when you have faith in him your possibilities will become endless. Your father and I are very proud of you Hannah!

Love Mom, Dad and Emily

Alissa Barber

A daughter is a wonderful blessing
A treasure from above She's laughter, warmth, and special charm

She's thoughtfulness and love The day that you were born was such a happy day and you have blessed us all in so many different ways.

A girl who faced obstacles
with courage and a smile.

A girl who learned life's lessons
and did it with great style.

A girl who really loved to play and brighten up our lives.

That precious little girl has grown
into a woman before our eyes.

No words can describe the warm memories.

The pride and gratitude too that comes from having a daughter to love and cherish... just like you.

Everyone is so proud of you, Alissa!

Love always,
Mom & Dad

Jeremy Bereza

Everyone makes mistakes, it is what we learn from them that makes the difference.

We are proud of you!

Love,

Mom, Dad & Johnny

Anna Clark

Anna Jane,
You have always made us so proud and always will...
The world is your stage. We love you extraordinary, much!

Madelyn Marie, my heart and soul from the second I knew you existed. I always dreamt of the amazing person you could become. But I could have never imagined that your strength, humor, and breathtaking beauty would keep me so completely overwhelmed with pride and emotion. I have always been in awe of your incredible talents and grace. You have already "soared" and "flew" in ways that most people could only imagine. Always face your fears, baby girl, and never change who you are. I can only hope that I may have taught you half of the wonderful, carefree lessons that you have taught me. I love you-

Strength

Strength is built by working an area over and over. The only way we know we are getting stronger is when we feel the pain within ourselves. Pain of exceeding our limits, pain of torn fibers, emotions. When our muscles are strained, we push through and they grow. The same holds true with our relationships. When our beliefs are challenged or our character is attacked, what we come out as a result is a stronger person. When our abilities are tested, we strengthen ourselves and rise to the occasion. When our friends and family are threatened we draw strength and defend them. The more it happens over and over throughout our life, it makes us uniquely stronger than we once were. You Brad have got more strength inside yourself than any single person I have ever known. I am proud to be your father, your teacher and to call you my son. You not only inspire your classmates and teammates, you inspire me as well. Please take all your hard work, everything you have learned and all the STRENGTH you have built up to this point, go out and kick this world's ass!

I Love you, Mom & Dad

Dear Zach,
You have been the greatest joy in my life since the day you were born. I've watched you grow into the wisest, nicest, funniest, most inspirational young man I've ever met. You've overcome obstacles most adults don't have to, and yet you've taken them and used them as life lessons to motivate you to improve yourself and your future.
As you complete this chapter of your life, I am sad, but also so very proud of you and excited for the amazing future that's in store for you! Congratulations my boy. I love you to infinity and beyond. Your Momma

An inspiration.

Graduation is such a huge achievement that many do not get to experience. So on that note, you better be pretty darn proud of yourself because you did it after not being born alive, not breathing for 22 minutes, and from then on you have been overcoming 17 years of pain that no one should have to go through, and yet you still have the eagerness to go to college in Florida. I have always been proud to call you my son no matter what. I love you so much.

People are often unreasonable and self-centered, forgive them anyway. If you are kind, people may accuse you of ulterior motives, be kind anyway. If you are honest, people may cheat you, be honest anyway.

The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow, do good anyway. Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough, give your beset anyway.

For you see, in the end, it is between you and God, it was never between you and them anyway.

Our Tiana,
From the beginning of time your little wheels have been rolling, spreading your wings along the way! You were dancing at 10 months, playing basketball since the wee age of 3, made a CD "Tiana sings the blues" at 5. Played piano, saxophone, acted on stage, soccer, swim, track! It was never shocking when you'd come home from school and say "I signed up for..!" Look what you have accomplished! So Dear Daughter, your history is on the

You have grown into a woman
From the girl we once knew

A girl who faced obstacles
With courage and a smile
A girl who learned life's lessons
And did it with great style

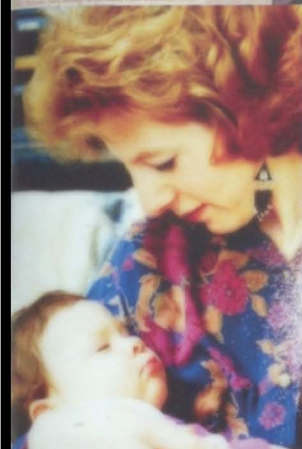

A girl who really loved to play
And brightened up our lives
That precious little girl has grown
Into a woman before our eyes

Now you must look deep within
And decide what is good for you
There is no place for mediocrity
Only the best will do
